Record of Conviction

Have you ever been convicted of or pled guilty to a misdemeanor or felony crime that has not been expunged or otherwise removed from your record? Unless applying for a position as a truck driver, you do not need to disclose misdemeanor traffic offenses.

(A criminal conviction does not necessarily disqualify you for employment. Rather, such factors as age and date of conviction, seriousness and nature of the crime, and rehabilitation will be considered.)

(Please circle one) Yes No

If you answered "Yes" to the previous question, please describe the circumstances of your conviction(s) including the date(s), nature, and place(s) of each offense, and the sentencing disposition of the case. Please be accurate and complete.

I certify that all the information submitted by me on this application is true and complete, and I understand that if any false information, omissions, or misrepresentations are discovered, my application may be rejected and, if I am employed, my employment may be terminated at any time.

In consideration of this company's review of this application, I release Friendship Industries and all providers of information from any liability as a result of furnishing and receiving such information (this does not waive my right to file a charge, testify, assist or participate in an investigation, hearing or proceeding under Title VII, the Age Discrimination in Employment Act, the Equal Pay Act, or the Americans with Disabilities Act.)

In consideration of my employment, I agree to conform to the company's rules and regulations, and I agree that my employment and compensation can be terminated, with or without cause, and with or without notice, at any time, at either my or the company's option. I also understand and agree that the terms and conditions of my employment may be changed, with or without cause, and with or without notice, at any time by the company. I agree to allow Friendship Industries to call my references listed above. I understand that no company representative, other than its President, and then only when in writing and signed by the President, has any authority to enter into any agreement for employment for any specific period of time, or to make any agreement contrary to the foregoing.

Why are you being asked to complete this form?

We are a federal contractor or subcontractor required by law to provide equal employment opportunity to qualified people with disabilities. We are also required to measure our progress toward having at least 7% of our workforce be individuals with disabilities. To do this, we must ask applicants and employees if they have a disability or have ever had a disability. Because a person may become disabled at any time, we ask all of our employees to update their information at least every five years.

Identifying yourself as an individual with a disability is voluntary, and we hope that you will choose to do so. Your answer will be maintained confidentially and not be seen by selecting officials or anyone else involved in making personnel decisions. Completing the form will not negatively impact you in any way, regardless of whether you have self-identified in the past. For more information about this form or the equal employment obligations of federal contractors under Section 503 of the Rehabilitation Act, visit the U.S. Department of Labor's Office of Federal Contract Compliance Programs (OFCCP) website at www.dol.gov/ofccp.

How do you know if you have a disability?

You are considered to have a disability if you have a physical or mental impairment or medical condition that substantially limits a major life activity, or if you have a history or record of such an impairment or medical condition. Disabilities include, but are not limited to:

- Autism
- Autoimmune disorder, for example, lupus, fibromyalgia, rheumatoid arthritis, or HIV/AIDS
- Blind or low vision
- Cancer
- Cardiovascular or heart disease
- Celiac disease
- Cerebral palsy

AA/EEO VOLUNTARY SURVEY

Because we do business with the government, agencies require our company to provide reports on status of applicants. We must also reach out to, hire, and provide equal opportunity to qualified people with disabilities. To help us measure how well we are doing, and to measure the accuracy of our employment information, we need your assistance in completing this questionnaire. The information requested on this survey is to be voluntarily provided and is for analysis and affirmative action only.

Information concerning race, sex, age, veteran's status, or disability will be kept private and will not be used against you in any way. This data will be kept separate from the application and will not jeopardize or adversely affect any consideration you may receive for employment or later advancement in employment.

Veteran Definitions

You are considered a “disabled veteran” if you:

- are a veteran of the U.S. Military, ground, naval, or air service who is entitled to disability compensation under laws administered by the Veterans Administration; or
- were discharged or released from active duty because of a service-connected disability.

You are considered a “special disabled veteran” if you:

- served on active duty in the U.S. military ground, naval, or air service and (1) were discharged or released from active duty because of a service-connected disability, or (2) are entitled to compensation (or but for the receipt of military retired pay would be entitled to compensation) for certain disabilities under laws administered by the Department of Veterans Affairs (i.e., disabilities rated at 30 percent or more, or at 10 or 20 percent if you have been determined to have a serious employment handicap).

You are considered an “other protected veteran” if you:

- served on active duty during a war; or
- served on active duty during a campaign or expedition for which a campaign badge has been awarded. A list of military engagements included in this category may be found on the U.S. Office of Personnel Management website at www.opm.gov/veterans/html/vgmedal2.asp.

You are considered a “newly/recently separated veteran (3year):

- during the three-year period beginning on the date of your discharge or release from active duty in the U.S. Military, ground, naval, or air service.

You are considered a “Vietnam-era veteran” if you:

- served on active duty for a period of more than 1890 days, and were discharged with other than a dishonorable discharge, in the Republic of Vietnam between February 28, 1961, and May 7, 1975, or between August 5, 1964, and May 7, 1975, in all other cases; or
- were discharged or released from active duty for a service-connected disability if any part of such active duty was performed in the republic of Vietnam between February 28, 1961, and May 7, 1975, or between August 5, 1964, and May 7, 1975, in all other cases.

You are considered an “Armed Forces service medal veteran” if:

- while serving on active duty in the U.S. military, ground, naval, or air service, you participated in a United States military operation for which an Armed Forces service medal was awarded pursuant to Executive Order 12985.
